ALLEGATIONS

The complainant alleged that accused approached complainant, accused was wearing a badge from around his neck and had a handgun. After searching complainant accused took $240.00 USC from complainant.

C.L. Initiation Log # 1050316

NARRATIVE:

On 28 November 2011, complainant reported that that while he was walking at above location a dark green GEO Metro vehicle pulled up. The accused exited the vehicle and told the complainant to put his hands on the car. The complainant related that the accused had a small silver badge on a chain around accused's neck and a black semiautomatic handgun. Complainant believing that the accused was a police officer placed his hands on the vehicle. The accused then searched the complainant and then asked for the complainant's identification. Complainant took his wallet out and attempted to take his ID out of the wallet. Accused yelled at the complainant and said, "Just give me the wallet." When the complainant handed over his wallet the accused did not look at the complainant's ID but took $240.00 USC out of the complainant's wallet and gave back the into above vehicle and fled the area.

Incident may have been recorded by World Relief Foundation's surveillance security cameras ( At the time of this report unable to review surveillance footage.
